Author Panel: Twin Cities Sisters in Crime

The Twin Cities Sisters in Crime are a fantastic group that supports writers, readers, librarians, booksellers, and teachers. We've invited them to present a panel of authors at the Hudson Library to celebrate Women's History Month on March 28 and the topic is: She's All That, and A Detective to Boot: Single mothers, cops, attorneys, journalists—today's heroines balance relationships and careers, leap over sexist obstacles, and rescue themselves from danger.

Find out how these writers create strong women characters at the author panel and bring your questions! Visit: www.twincitysync.org to learn more about the Twin Cities Sisters in Crime.
